“ Naomi had a beautiful soul and when she loved you, she truly loved you, unconditionally, and you could count on her if you needed her no matter what time of day or night she would answer the call and have your back. She was undoubtedly 100% one of the good ones. She was an Angel here on Earth. I loved her and even if life put distance between us, when we did reconnect she was the same loving, caring beautiful person every time. She was real. You never had to wonder what she was thinking. She was honest and had a way of making you feel loved and know that if you were down and out and needed a push in the right direction, she would be there to help you out. There is and probably never will be another like her she was one of a kind. I know that I will miss her and that Heaven must be even more beautiful now that she is there. Naomi, like the song says, I hope you're dancing in the sky. I hope you're singing in the Angel's choir. I hope them Angels know what they have. I bet it's so nice up in Heaven since you arrived. RIP and fly high. Give Russell a big hug for me. Until we meet again there will be an emptiness in our hearts that can not be filled. I love you, Momma!

“ I am extending my sincerest sympathies to Naomi's family. I can assure them that they were always at the forefront of her thoughts and in her heart. She held a profound affection for each of you. She always demonstrated a willingness to provide support to her family whenever possible but was never afraid to say what was on her mind. Her absence will be deeply felt, particularly by me.

“ I met Naomi about 28 years ago, she would become my son's grandmother. anyone that knew her knew she loved her family unconditionally. Her giving heart and selflessness will never be forgotten. She was one of the best people I have known.
