“ Dear Hunter family , I look back and after graduating from high school and going to work for IMC Fertilizer that I enjoyed working with Nathan , he was my shift supervisor. I can remember even back then that me and him would talk about church and The Lord and he was dedicated to his church but more to serving God .after us working together and he retired I would learn that Chrissy his grand daughter and my daughter were best friends and when I saw her I would ask how he was. We'll to all the family and friends I know today there is a celebration taking place in Heaven and the guest of Honor is Mr Nathan Hunter so let us celebrate the life he lived and faith he showed and look for the day we see him again with Jesus at his side. God Bless You on this time Mrs. Hunter and dear family God Bless, Jerry Robinson

“ Prayers for the whole family. Loved this man even though he had been been known to call me "old woman". I wonder when I see him in heaven if he will still call me that; it is ok if he does, I will still give him a big hug. Tonda Parish

“ I married into the Hunter family when I married Shari. Uncle Nathan always had a kind word and a smile every time I saw him. He is a special man that now resides in heaven. I can't wait to go to see Jesus and all of those that have gone before me.

“ Brother Nathan was one of my greatest encouragers growing up. Times I felt like never playing another key or singing another note, he would always say, "Keep it up you are doing great!" Or "Girl, nobody can play or sing like you!" And, I would wipe away the tears and keep practicing. He always made our choir practices interesting by demonstrating his unique "female solo" voice ! Where that sound came from I will never know! But when he sang his bass voice was just a heavenly sound... Just as I know it is now as he has joined brother Robert Tatum and many more in that heavenly choir! I can only imagine....
