Beautiful video of a Beautiful Woman I had the pleasure of being just a little part in her wonderful life. I remember visiting in Mr. & Mrs. Byrd's home and feeling so at home there. Apart of our church family then having Debbie & Kenny join our families together. You will be so missed, but we will meet again one day in heaven. Love, Wendy & Tommy

“ We buried my Grandmother yesterday (09-12-2016) when someone approached me and said "I'm sorry for your loss". I thought to myself. Sad for her passing? Yes. But loss? What loss? Grandma was a woman who had faith in God, Love for her family, and respect for her country. She never let me win any game's on purpose. She always told me the truth even when I didn't like it, and she loved me without question. Even when I was running down the highway to hell at 110mph. So if you don't have someone like that in your life then my friend. I'm sorry for your loss. Besides I know exactly were Grandma is. She is sitting at the foot of God with family that went before. She's not lost at all.

From the whole family we will love you always. R.I.P. GRANDMA BYRD.

“ This is not "good-bye", Mom, it is, "I will see you later"!! I love you and miss you dearly. I know you are at peace and what a joyous reunion you are having with loved ones gone before you. I can only imagine seeing Jesus face-to-face!! Love, Sybil & Bruce

It is very hard to lose your mama, but there is Father to soothe you at any time. One day Rev. 2:14 says, "He will wipe away every tear from your eye, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain all these things are gone forever. I love you very much Sybil, Bruce, and family. God bless you.
