“ Mrs. Cribbs, (Nina) what can I say? Calling me Your Adopted Daughter, Alice. Who do I send Flowers too? You entered the life of a traumatized little girl on March 14, 1973. The Cribb’s Family became MY FAMILY. Always there for me with an Open Heart & Understanding, never criticized. My heart is breaking as tears are flowing. There is no one else who knows my situation & tribulations. I don’t know how to say Goodbye... The only consolation is that you believed and have now crossed over joining Mr. Cribbs. Mr. & Mrs. Cribbs, Stevie & Kaye I Will Forever Love You. Alice Caudill. (Ronnie)

“ Mrs. Cribbs was always a sweet kind and wonderful person to know and to be around. I will and do cherish all the memories of her and Mr. Cribbs in my life. They were always church family you could count on and be there for everyone. Will always love them for their friendship and kindness. Mrs. Cribbs is for sure a gift from God and now she is in the presents of God. She will be missed by many that had the privilege of knowing her. Rest in Pease Mrs. Cribbs.
