“ Mom had a lot of titles throughout her life. She was a wife, daughter, sister, cousin, aunt, sister-in-law, friend, neighbor and so many more. But to me the one that matters the most is MOM. I don't know how she managed with us 4 kids all those years but looking back she made it seem effortless. And on top of all that she was always taking care of others that came her way. We always had friends and family that looked to and cherished moms openness to our home. I often think of all those loads of laundry she must have done in her lifetime sometimes without even a dryer all the meals she had prepared sometimes being creative enough to stretch it out when times were tough and yet she did it without hesitation or complaining. I'll never forget our morning calls that mom took on my way to work every day after dad's passing . Mom was one tough lady. Having seen what the arthritis did to her and how she would never complain spoke volumes. Mom I love you and will see you again.

“ Remembering Nola from a child to an adult with such fondness. Always welcomed me , fed me and kept me up to date on people and events. I was always in amazement with her strength and that persistent smile she always had even though you knew life wasn't always easy and pain itself was taking it's toll . I know you are at peace now ❤️ As people have already said your strength and values will continue on with your children and grandchildren and they are truly blessed ❤️
