“ I came to know Mae and Darol because of a stray dog I lived down the road on Cooper from them I was so Blessed to get to know them and call them my friends. Mae was so sweet and loving, caring and kind she welcomed me like I'd known them my whole life. I moved away but we still spoke often on the phone and I loved hearing her stories about her her grand children and how she loved her family and friends. She definitely made a mark on my heart and brought a smile to my face and I'll forever think of her and Darol and she'll be missed by all who knew her.
