“ Aunt Cookie, you have always been one of the kindest, loving people. Even as a young child, I remember you never seemed to get impatient or frustrated with kids like some adults. You didn't just talk the talk of a God loving person, you lived it. Even though the ones you left behind are grieving, the ones that went before you are surely rejoicing. Until we meet again, may you rest easy in the loving arms of God.

“ Aunt Cookie, you have always been a very special Aunt to me, you are the one who always makes everyone else feel so "special", but all along it is you who really is....these are the kind of love words her and I would exchange...seriously she has made such a beautiful positive influence in my life. Her Christian spirit shines so bright and we know she is on Heavens shore rejoicing with all her loved ones who went before...praising and rejoicing with Jesus...we are only a few moments of vapor away...what a great Reunion it will be...heaven gets sweeter all the time! We love you Aunt Cookie...we will see you soon!

Sincerely,
Sharon Cook Bailey
