“ Wherever a beautiful soul has been, there is a trail of beautiful memories.

I will always remember Norma's kindness towards me. She is the person that taught me how to make gravy and fry pork chops. I will never forget the way she cared for Jamie and helped me out. She meant so much to me and a true blessing to everyone that knew her.

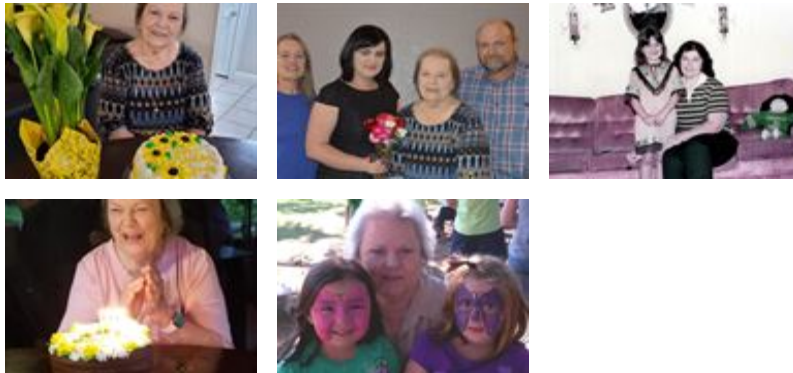

Richey, Dana and Carla Your Mommas love will continue to guide you. And her beautiful soul will never be forgotten. You all and your families are in my thoughts and prayers. Lean on those precious beautiful memories.

With love, Lynda

“ Dana, Carla , Richie and Larry ...We are all so very sorry for your loss. Our family always enjoyed Norma Ruth and Charlie coming to Tennessee to visit after our move here. I remember Norma Ruth 's first car, a 1961 Chevy Impala, white with a blue streak down the side . She would always take us younger cousins for a ride. She was a sweet, gentle spirit always and she will be so missed by all who knew her. Love to the family . The Jimmy Carr Family
