“ Oh how I loved Bro Norman and Ms Martha. The days of my youth at Valrico Baptist with them as youth leaders were the best. So funny so loving and their love for youth and Jesus was evident. My Dad Art White and Bro Norman kept the laughter flowing at Valrico.

“ Oh what a great big smile Norman has on his face right now. He is with his Lord and Savior and his Beloved wife, Martha. They loved each other so very much and they shared that love with others. I am so very glad that my family was able to get to know both of them while they attended Turkey Creek First Baptist Church. I will always remember Norman as a very Godly man and he shared his faith and love to all around him. My love and prayers go out to his sons which like Norman loved to share God with those around them. May the loving memories of times gone by be vivid in your heart and soul forever.
