“ Michele and I had a little trip together a few years ago. It was an adventure that I will never forget! She had such a sweet spirit about her. I am so sad for all of the family for their loss. My prayers are with all of them. Michele is at peace with Jesus--nothing could ever be better than that!

“ Michele was always so funny, thought Todd was her new toy. When I ask what is your name, she would say "Me chel" and I would say no "My chel". Always laughing and playing. I pray that God will comfort Gloria, Ed, Karen and Emily in this terrible time you all are going thru. There's no words one can say, but knowing you are loved by friends and family may comfort you. “ My "Deepest Sympathy" to Michele's family and friends at their time of grief. I know she will be greatly missed and so sorry to hear about her passing. I have known her since she was a little girl cause she was my little sister, Yvonne's best friend. I remembered back when she delivered parts for NAPA when I worked for B.M. Smith Motors. You all will be in my thoughts and prayers.
