“ Pam and I went to high school together, sitting next to each other in some of them. She was always friendly with a beautiful smile. High Springs was a fun place to grow up and we come of age in an interesting time when 18 years were given the right to vote and marry. As often said, we had the best music and best cars. Pam and I sort of became related and saw each other periodically through the years when her nephew, Scott Fulford, married my daughter Amy. Pam's sister and Scott's mother, Shirley Fulford, was prior deceased to Pam. My condolences go to Pam's children and other family members, especially to Joyce (Roberts) Brown, Pam's mother.
