“ I was saddened to hear the death of a beloved cousin-in-law. I last saw Pansy at our Dixon family reunion in April 2016. She always made me smile with her natural wit. She had a sweet kind soul and I loved her. Will miss her very much. She is now with her husband, my dear cousin J.T. and I know they are so happy in their reunion.

“ The last time I spent with her was priceless, she was here in Alabama. We took her around and showed her the covered bridges and had lunch. We talked and shared memories of our childhood. I am so thankful for that time with her.

I love you mom! Go rest ye high on that mountain. You did what you did for us with all that you were dealt in life. I'm going to cherish every memory for the rest of my life. Thank you and rest in eternal peace with dad now. I'm so glad that you did not suffer and will always be grateful for your loving care in my childhood.

Thomas Dixon - March 02, 2017 at 06:03 PM

“ She took care of me when I broke my ankle. She has prayed for me so many times. My favorite times were when on Holidays we would stay up late and she would cook and I would do dishes and we talked.
