

Ms. Pat Ann Comstock

November 8, 1942 - July 24, 2024

Pat Ann Comstock, affectionately known as Pat, was born on November 8th, 1942, in Lawrenceburg, Tennessee to the late Theodore Roosevelt Hensley and Annie (Moore) Hensley. On Wednesday, July 24th, 2024, Pat was called home to be with the Lord. She transitioned with loving family by her side and comforts of the Lord's words whispered at her bedside. In her earlier years, she attended and received her education from the Lawrence County School District. Pat completed her college education in Business. She professed a hope in Christ at an early age and loved her Lord and Savior. In her adult age, she became a faithful member of First Baptist Church of Plant City, where she participated in the choir. Pat enjoyed giving praises to God as she ministered through music. A devoted mother and matriarch to her family. Scott (Scooter), Kevin, and Leigh were privileged and blessed to be able to have her as their mother. She loved and adored her children. She was a source of faith, strength, and guidance. Pat was a passionate NHRA Sportsman fan! Never did she miss a race that Kevin participated in, if she could not be there physically then she would make sure that she was watching it online. Pat was a devoted and dedicated employee at Sparrow Key Realty in Plant City, she even worked while in the hospital. She loved her job and the individuals within it. Pat had a deep connection with where she worked and viewed it as far more than a job. When talking about Sparrow Key Realty, she would always make reference to the old gospel hymn "His Eye is on the Sparrow". Pat's clients often said that, "Pat treated me like family!" She was very kind and caring with her clients. Pat was a beautiful soul and brought joy to all the lives that she touched. She loved her family, and she loved the Lord. She held all her grandchildren in adoration. They were the light of her life. She was an active, involved, and supportive grandmother. Pat was preceded in death by her beloved son, Norman Scott Helms; her parents, Theodore Roosevelt Hensley, and Annie (Moore) Hensley; and brother, Kenneth Ray Hensley. She leaves cherished, precious, and loving memories with son, Kevin Lee Helms (Elena) of Plant City; daughter, Leigh Ann O'Steen (Joe) of Plant City; grandchildren, Christopher Helms, Robert Burdette, Kaylee Helms, and Emily Helms; great-grandchildren, Gaven Sigler, Preston Helms, Levi Helms, and LeighAnn Helms; her siblings, Norma Jean Hensley, and James Dwight Hensley; as well as a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, beloved family members, loved ones, and friends. A funeral service will take place at Thursday, August 1 at 11:00 A.M. at First Baptist Church of Plant City, 3309 James L. Redman Parkway, Plant City, where the family will receive friends starting at 10:00 A.M. Committal to follow at Hopewell Memorial Garden, Plant City. For those unable to attend, the service will be live-streamed at <https://www.fbcpc.com/live>. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to either of the following charities: The Music Ministry at First Baptist Church, and/or Plant City Racers for Christ: teamrfc.org.
