Rick I'm late reaching out to you about Pat's passing because I just this hour found out. I'm am so so so very sorry. She truly had a wonderful life with you. It can be seen in her smiles. I'm equally embarrassed that I didn't know she was ill. Granted we weren't a foursome but you were my friend for many years. So your pain touches me. Although it doesn't rise to losing a spouse but I too lost my entire family back home. Mom, Dad and loving sister. I nearly lost my mind so I pray you reach out Rick to ur friends family but most of all your clergy. It's been 8 years now for my loss. But I wake up each morning and it hits me in the gut all over again. I didn't handle my grief. Please talk to someone. And most importantly know that if u need anything just call us. Hector and I will b there for u and your family. Again I'm sorry.

Dear Family, I don't, quite, know what to say. Pat has worked for my husband for so many years and I can't imagine calling or going by there and not have Pat's smiling face and sweet voice greeting me. She was a sweet, hardworking wonderful person and we will al miss her.
