*“ We at DSI are so sorry for your loss. Pat traveled a long road through three different modalities and I got to know her very well. We were all so happy when she got her transplant and rejoiced in her happiness to not have to come to the center anymore. She left part of herself here that will always be in our hearts and I personally was privileged to share some wonderful moments with her. My prayers go out to you and please know that you are still part of our DSI Family.
With Warmest regards,
Shirley Lynch, LCSW*

“ Our hearts are broken, but our faith is strong. We would have liked her to stay, but we must trust the Lord. His ways are not our ways, and ours are not his. Though sorrow has overtaken us, yet we find peace in him. May the Lord give you strength as I know he will. A day to the Lord is as a thousand years, so you see, she will just barely get settled in and we will be knocking on her door just a few minutes after she arrives. She'll not even have time to miss us, and we'll be there. He took her home to love her and he knows you will follow. She will always live in our memories of time spent together. We can't put into words the sorrow we carry in our hearts.

Love you !

“ I just want to let you and all the family, that I am the king of all the family, especially you and the children. I always thought the world of Pat. She was a wonderful Christian lady. I know she is a much better home. No pain and suffering. Another of God's children has gone home. Another star shining brightly in the heavens. No one can say, " I know how you feel", because everyone is different and their feelings are different. But for sure, there is an emptiness. We are to rejoice at the going home and tears at the coming into this world. But I pray God's peace and comfort be with you. You have God in your life, so you know he is right there with you. Jr, I love you and all the family and my prayers and thoughts are with you. I would love to be there, but I am not able to ride. My prayers and thoughts are with the family.

“ Thoughts and prayers to the Newberry Family, grief is different for all and no one really knows how you are feeling. But know that there are so many who loved Ms. Pat who are willing to open arms to hug, cry, talk with you about her. We know she is with the Lord which should give some comfort to all.

MARSHA LACEY - February 19, 2014 at 05:03 PM

“ I was so excited this past Thanksgiving and Christmas...after most of my life hearing about how good my mom's pecan pies were (I don't eat pecans) and having hundreds of people ask me for her recipe (mom kept it a secret) this past Thanksgiving she finally said "Cheryl you are going to have to learn to make these pies" I said mom, "I don't even eat pecans" and she said "yes but others do" as weak as she was around the holidays she insisted I learn so I did and they were as pretty as hers. I will always be grateful for all the time we spent in the kitchen together over the years but especially the day I learned to make her famous pecan pie! I think her pecan pie and strawberry jam will always be part of her legacy! That along with her caring ways to want to make others happy by making them homemade gifts! Mom was so simple but what she did she did with excellence and so much love that people adored her for it! Love you mom!

Cheryl: I'm so sorry for your loss. I wish I had gotten to see her over the last few years. It's been a long time - probably since you were about 3, and I was on a trip with you, your mom and dad. My sincere condolences to you and all the family. By the way, you can always use walnuts instead of pecans - that would be MY preference. :-)

“ Bro. Junior,

Romey and I will never forget the times we shared while living next door during our time at Southern Bible College. The time Pat and Romey had taken me into Gulf Oil for an job interview and walked up as well as down 20 something flights of stairs. Those days we will always cherish as special times. We are praying for you and your family during this time.

“ What a loss, for us...Sister Pat- one of the sweetest, kindest Ladies ever. With all of her suffering, she always had a smile on her face, and even more, Love in here eyes. Her faith never waivered. She will be sorely missed, especially by Brother Newberry, Cheryl & ALL of her family. We LOVE you ALL, & please take comfort in KNOWING where she is. She is in very good hands. We love you all and know you are in our prayers !

“ Pastor Newberry, Cheryl and family....from the first moment I met Ms. Pat she was a true inspiration to me and my family. She was the first person I met at Wednesday dinner, the first person to ask me how I was doing....she loved on the kids like they were her own. She never had a bad word to say, never complained and always loved with all her heart. She will be missed here, but God received a beautiful angel yesterday. From the Caldwell family....we love you and our prayers are with you. God bless.

We have known the Newberry family for almost 40 years. Sis Pat was such an inspiration to us! Each time we saw them in the mall or wherever they were she was always ready with a smile and a hug. No one can replace her but her memory will live on in her children, grandchildren and especially Bro Newberry's memories of over 50 years together! We love the Newberry family! The Tew Family

In light of the beautiful expressions of love for Pastor Newberry and Family, and for the bright shining light of Mrs. Pat, I will metaphorically Place the Newberry Family on God's lap and offer the ministry of silence. I will be still and know, It is well with their souls.
