“ Polly,

“Come on in, sit down- take a load off your feet.” I can still hear you as if it were yesterday. I am so blessed to have been able to witness you transform your life for the better. Even when things looked grim, you kept your fists up fighting, and you won. You got to experience the rest of your days in happiness and caring company. I will never forget visiting you in Florida and seeing you truly glow. I will forever cherish the memories of our last night together; having a beer and hearing your southern accent come alive; I don't think I've ever laughed so hard in my life. Thank you. You were more than a friend to me, I love you Polly, keep on having a blast up in heaven- you deserve it!

With much love,

Linda-Marie

“ Mrs. Poli:

May you be as happy in heaven as you were in Florida going to the casino, having all you can eat lobster in Kissimmee, and of course, the all you can eat-party buffet on Clearwater Beach. You became a true Floridian in your short time here. You are officially christened a southern girl. I will cherish our phone conversations and how you could recall my visit in 1994 and rocking Patches, EJ, and watching Days of Our Lives together. You were and always will be a hoot. God Bless you on your future journeys. You were truly a pearl amongst all oysters.
