“ Mrs. Peggy was one of the most Godly women I ever knew. We would call each other and talk about family, but mostly about God and His greatness. I am going to miss her and our talks. I feel blessed to have known this precious lady.

“ Peggy Ann was always a source of strength and faith for me and always accepted me as family; a daughter, not a daughter-in-law. She will be missed here on Earth but is with her Lord and Savior now.

“ So thankful for Peggy's testimony and unashamed witness for her Lord and Savior! Though we hadn't know her as long as others, she was a joy to be around. We will certainly miss her at Ahava, but we know she is with the Lord whom she loved and served.
