Phillip Ray Bassinger, Sr., 49, of Plant City, born June 15, 1967, entered into eternal rest January 24, 2017. He was a very giving man, and everything was about his family. He loved taking his girls shopping, and sitting on the front porch drinking coffee every morning with his wife. He was preceded in death by his father, Ishabel Hayden Bassinger, brother Robert Bassinger, and grandparents Wade and Margaret Register. “ My friend Phil. Although I never called him Phil. Phillip..."if you gonna come and stay this long next time bring a bucket of chicken". You know, I never brought that bucket of chicken. I wish I had. He loved to remind me though. To my friend Steph, my heart aches for you and your babies. He will be missed. Hey Phillip, I'm sure Jesus loves chicken too! Have a piece for me! Love you Bassinger Bunch!

“ Phillip, I can't even begin to thank you for everything you have done for me and my family. Not only did you accept my first born, Brittany, as your own Grandchild, you accepted the love of my life, Ashli as your daughter. These are not only things you didn't have to do but things not many men would do. Dakota and Michayla, in addition to be spoiled beyond belief by you, will have memories and experiences that will last a lifetime Because of the father, grandfather and man that you are , you have forever changed and made better the lives of so many people. I am forever in your debt. I love and miss you.

“ Phillip is my oldest son. He has been beside me in good times and bad times. There is no way to express how proud I am of my baby. He raised a great family showing them the importance of being together at all times. Loving one another and having each others backs. Now at this, worst time in their lives, they are doing just that. They each are taking care of their mama and each other. Ashli, Bubba, Courtney, Kaleb, Kayli, Addy, Brittany, Dakota, Michala, Bayleigh. Pop loves you all and he is so proud. Mama

“ You never let us down. You made sure I always had everything I wanted and more. Dakota and Michayla never left you without "spending money" and funny Pa stories. My kids are so blessed to have had a Grandpa that loved them so much. There are not many men in this world who would do the things you did for our family. I miss you Pop and love you with all my heart.

“ To me you were more than an uncle. You were someone that I looked up to. I know I was wasn't one of your children but I always felt like it. You were a place I could run to and find peace. I will miss you more than words can ever describe. I just wish I could have had more memories with you. I love you so much Uncle Philip. You were the best uncle a girl could have ever asked for. I promise to help look out for all of the most important people in your life. Save me a spot in heaven ❤️

“ Bayleigh loved her Pawpaw like no one else. Although they only had a short time together, the bond they shared was like no other. When they would see each other they both lit up and the smiles on their faces filled my heart with such happiness. To Pawpaw she could do no wrong, and the more trouble she caused the more he laughed. Thank you Pawpaw for the "french fry" money you gave her each time you had to leave her.
