“ My deepest sympathy to Phil's family. I just learned of his passing recently. We are cousins but I have not seen him since we were young adults. We visited a good bit when we were children and I always enjoyed playing with phillip. I remember him as being always full of mischief and fun, always cheerful, always laughing. May God grant peace to you, his family; his wife, children, grandchildren, mother, sisters, and other family as you work through the loss of such a loved man.

Here is a teddy bear with my heart in loving memory of my Bro.

Kathy Gumpert - June 26, 2013 at 08:42 PM

Kathy, may your precious brother rest in peace. He was my cousin but I haven't seen him (or you or Marty) since we were little kids. I was shocked when I just found out yesterday (Wed/August 21, 2013) that Phillip had passed away. My heart is comforted only by knowing he is now reunited with his Savior and with his daddy, my Uncle Onis. God bless you.

“ He was my baby bro and I love him very much! There will never be anyone like him again. He was bigger than life. He always made us laugh. He cracked me up. I last spoke with him on his birthday and we talked for 2 1/2 hrs, I about wet my pants I laughed so hard. Forever in my heart, I love you Bro, love Kathy
