“ Uncle Pleasie I have so many good memories of you growing up living next door to you. You trying to teach me to make a castnet that was hanging from the tree in the back yard. The many jokes you tolled, and you and mom trying to out tell each other. Most of all the last visit with you my sister and daughter we had a wonderful visit going down memory lane. Give mom a big huge for me and all the family in heaven. I LOVE YOU.

“ Loved spending time at your home with my granny sue and mom sandy. Loved your homemade syrup, letting me run in the garden and help you pick anything that was ready and playing with your worm bed. I have many fun memories of hanging out on hinson road with all my granny sues family :) love you, see you one day in heaven, glad we were able to see you not to long ago!!

“ Uncle Pleasie - you were always such a great Uncle and neighbor. I know you are rejoicing in Heaven with your sweet wife, parents, brothers and sisters. I have a lot of good memories of you that I will always cherish, but I know you are finally home and probably shouting in Glory. May the Good Lord bless and comfort your family that are left behind, and, hopefully that will all be with you in Heave some day.
