“ I worked at J.S.Robinson while Mrs.Culpepper was there. We shared the same love for children and and great school. She was an excellent cook, and could make the best macaroni and cheese ever!

Rachel was the sister of my husband, Lloyd. She was always such a sweet person. I always wished we lived closer to her. The only times we would see her was at her mothers and when the family had those big reunions. Prayers for all the family, we will always remember her. God Bless...
