

Ralph "Coach" Alvarez

February 3, 2010

ALVAREZ, Ralph, "Coach" 76, of Brandon has gone to live with Jesus. He was a loving husband, father, and mentor. He is survived by his wife, Helen; children, Dena, Trace, Greg, Steve, and Andy Alvarez; one sister, Violet Cardoso; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. "You brought so much love, laughter, and understanding to our family and friends." Visitation will begin Sat. Feb. 6, 2010 at 1pm at Hopewell Funeral Home, 6005 County Rd. 39 S., Plant City, 33567. Memorial services will follow at 2pm at the funeral home.

Tribute Wall

“ I met Ralph when i was 5years old.if was like a father to me.the most loving and caring person i have ever met! he was good to all of us kids growing up.im blessed to been able to had Ralph in my life for 41 years.he will be missed.so now Ralph go be with your son little Ralph and kiss him for all of us.To the Alvarez family my prayers are with you all,i love you all dearly.##imported-begin##Beverly Boatright-Laundy##imported-end##

January 17, 2011 at 08:31 AM

“ We send our sympathies to you. Mr.Alvarez was a great person,i remember him from Bryan ele. school.He really loved the children and helped me with the good news Bible club we had at a church close to the school.you knew he was a Christan and showed it in his life. Praying for Gods comfort to you and your family.##imported-begin##june&earl cannon##imported-end##

January 17, 2011 at 08:31 AM