Best Dad anyone could have ever had. I haven't been the same person since you had to go. I know you are with grandma and grandpa and uncle Ernie, Betty and Ms . Emily..Since then I know that Billy has come to join you. I hope that you all are guiding me to the best part of my life and watching over Ramon. I hope to reunite someday soon so we can all be together again. Love your daughter Rachel ❤️

“ Ralph was my very first boss. He was the manager at McDonald's on Thonotassa road. I have to say that he was the funniest boss that I ever had and he made it fun to go too work. He will be missed, but everyone in Heaven will have a great time with him their.

“ Ralph had been a customer of mine for twenty years. He was my favorite. Always smiling and telling jokes. He always made me smile! Even visiting him at the hospital, he was quick with a smile and a joke. He will be truly missed.

We had the pleasure of getting to know Ralph and Gayle due to Donnie's Aunt Evelyn was also Gayle's Aunt Evelyn on the Raulerson side. Ralph was always pleasant, smiling, good natured and always had something "witty" to say! He will be missed and our prayers go out to his family.

*Love you much,
Donnie and Sharon Weldon*
