I first met Ralph and his beloved wife, Vergie, in the late 1960's through his son, Gary, one of my dearest friends. Over the years, I came to love him as he demonstrated over and over his constant devotion for his family and friends. His faith in our Lord inspired me time and time again as I witnessed how he faced his health challenges. He regaled us all with his funny stories, especially the fishing tales. He gifted my family and I many times with a "mess of fish" he caught---but never on Sunday. I will cherish always the memories of going to Ralph's on the days when he, Gary and friends would make his famous cane syrup. What an experience! My sincere condolences to Vergie, Gary, Laura and their families at this time. As we grieve the loss of Ralph from his earthly home, we rejoice in his Heavenly Homecoming with the Lord.. May he rest in eternal peace. Amen. Frankie Wilson
