“ I feel very lucky to have met Randy. He was an awesome guy. I'm glad our family was able to meet and spend time with him. We could tell how caring and kind he was from our short visits with him. My heart aches for those closest to him.

Lori, Randy enjoyed your phonecalls to catch up on what's going on in your life. Yes, it was nice to meet you in Mass last year. I'm very sorry we lost him. It's such a loss to anybody who knew him. I will keep in touch with you. You know how much he thought of family. He was so wonderful, we were so happy together. I'm glad he was in my life for 2 1/2 years. Best years of my life. Love you Lori...just as your brother did

“ All of my memories of Randy are good ones. He always had a smile, a laugh, and made me laugh too. Such a wonderful man. He touched so many lives. He said "Live life to it's fullest" and we did. Don't know why things went the way they did but, thanks for saving me. I'm sorry you're not here. I love you...everybody does.

“ I was very sorry to hear of Randy's passing in the Worcester Gazette tonight. I attended Worcester Industrial Tech with Randy in the 1970's and we later became friends working together at Kinefac Corporation in Worcester. I'll always remember Randy for his love of life, outgoing personality and friendship to those around him. I was fortunate enough to share some of those fun times with him and his Marine buddies from Worcester. I know he has a special place with the Lord and my sincerest condolences to his family.

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the friends and family! From the first time I met Randy, he has always been a very happy person, always smiling. He was a good man, friend and father! I pray for peace to you all tomorrow as you put his body to rest. May tomorrow be a solemn celebration of his life. I will be thinking of each of you, especially my amazing husband. I will be with you in spirit my love! I am broken hearted that I can not be there to say goodbye myself. God bless you all during this troubling time, and may you rest in peace Randy, I love you.

“ Aunt Joan, Gwen, Gary & Lori. We are so sorry for your loss. Unfortunately, there have been too many this year. We will always remember the fun we all had with Randy and Tim, from Tim's housewarming party with Tim and Randy being the life of it, as they were at all functions to the hypnotist we all went to and shared so many laughs. Very wonderful memories for all of us and I am sure for all of you. You can be assured that both Randy and Tim are keeping my mom and uncle Joe entertained!
