“ I will miss my father tremendously. There isn't a moment that I don't thank God that He has given me a father like Rawle Hope. He was always proud of all my accomplishments despite the being big or small from graduating high school to graduating college or passing a simple test at school or knowing simple facts about different things. I will always cherish the fond memories of him taking me to the beach in Payne Bay, St. James, Barbados and looking upon me with admiration when I went to prom in high school. He was a loving man who always saw the potential in me despite any situation and has always seen the light in me. I will miss having conversations on the phone with him everyday. I will miss his comical personality. I will miss his soft, warm eyes with nothing but love and kindness in them. I will miss his passion for enjoying life to the fullest. I will miss his cooking and him playing his Bob Marley cds. I will miss his encouraging words he used to tell me when I was going through a tough situation and most importantly...I will miss him. I can honestly say that I have been very fortunate and blessed to know I had a father who loved me genuinely. He had a heart of gold and a beautiful spirit. I gladly look to God to this day with gratitude and happiness to know He has passed on valuable life lessons through my father through his love which I in return will pass down to my children to pass down in future generations to come. Having Rawle Hope as a father has taught me that there much more to life than just material possessions and great accomplishments. It has taught me that love unconditionally is greater and more priceless than anything we possess. Cherish every moment you are given from God with your loved ones and always thank Him for blessings you have with them. Daddy, I love you and may you rest in peace eternally in Heaven and I will see you again in glory one day.

Rawle and I grew up together in Barbados. We had fun and shared many laughs.

Rawle loved to cook. It was either him telling what he had just cooked or who he was cooking for.

I last saw Rawle in August 2019. He spent a few days with Colvin and I. He always looked forward to spending time with us whenever he came up to New York. We always had such a good time together.

I will miss my funny and thoughtful friend and our chats together.
