“ He was the only dad I ever knew, and at times I may have wanted to strangle him and him the same to me, but we both knew deep down that we shared a bond that we were both lucky to have each other and that bond was nearly unbroken till November 14 2017, but even now I still love him more than anything and wish he would come back...

“ My condolences and Prayers to Ray and his family.. As a childhood friend of Ray in Middletown, Ohio i would like to share this with his family.. Ray was a great kid and I always knew he would end up doing something sports related in his life..He would get suited up in his Cincinnati Reds uniform and play catch on his back porch pretending to be in the ball game bouncing the ball off the porch for hours...Ray and I (along with other neighborhood kids) would play basketball in my driveway till late at night all the time.( my father put up a light pole for us) and when it snowed, we would shovel off the drive to play.

We were also on the elementary school basketball team together. ( the Spring Hill Toppers)....Gonna miss chatting with him on facebook.....God must have needed a scorekeeper or stat guy.
