“ Happy Birthday My Father. Today you would have been ninety years old. I wish I was fixing you a meatloaf dinner for your birthday. I truly miss you so much, and wish we could have one more chance to drink coffee together in the morning, and have one of our good conversations. I thought about you a lot today, how you, mom, and I would sit and watch the animals shows and sit on the porch and watch the squirrels and laugh when mom would start to talk to them. I miss the fun we used to have. I love you so much and I hope to see you again. Your daughter!

“ Hi my father, I have thought about you all day long, about how you were taking from me far too soon. There has been so much you have missed with my family. There is so much I would have liked to share with you. There has been a lot going on in the last five years, I have five grandchildren now and one great grandchild. Jim and I are both retired and doing well. I really do miss you a lot, I wish we could have had our coffee together this morning. I think of you and mom every day and I love you both with all my heart. I will talk to you soon my father.
