“ I thought I knew how to bass fish until I met Bob at Hopewell Baptist Church. Then the teaching began. Bob introduced me to real bass fishing and helped me find my first bass boat.

Bob was a good man and a good example how a Christian should lead their life. I was blessed to have know Bob.

I moved out of the are some twenty five years ago but still considered Bob my friend. If Bob was ever your friend you had a friend for life,

My condolences to Marian and the entire family.
