“ Robert and I became close friends in 2008 when I moved down to Brandon. He was a great help to me when I needed it most. Since then we continued to be friends and he's always been there with his wife.. My wife and I are saddened by his passing. For us-It's still sinking in. He was a strong husband and father. Always had great advice and a very funny sense of humor as well. We will look back with fond memories of Rob.

Robert and I go way back to growing up on Long Island, but we didn't know that until almost 20 years later. Then we found out my grandparents used to attend Church together with his parents. He was a great father husband and truly one of my best friends. He will be missed but never forgotten in my heart. May you rest in peace my friend and hopefully one day meet again on the other side. My Condolences to Kathy, Sean, Mathew, Brook and the rest of the family.
