“ Sorry to hear about your loss, Robert had many endearing moments with our family through the years. Family gatherings, Young Texas, 4th of July Parades are some that come to mind at this time. Know that Lane, Laci and family, and myself are saddened, but are sending prayers for your comfort at this time of loss. Sorry we were unable to make the services.

“ Thank you to everyone for your show of concern and support for our family during our time of grief. Dad was larger than life and he will be sorely missed by all. The world already seems boring without him here. Well done Dad, well done.

“ Uncle Robert,

In my childhood memories that include family get togethers, fishing and fun on the water, and good old fashion story telling (which you were awesome at) are filled with laughter, good family time, and lots of love. I remember Uncle Robert being the type of man that if you were ever in need, he would do whatever he could to help. We loved Uncle Robert and will always remember him. Rest in peace and enjoy paradise.
