“ Mr Bob was my homeroom teacher in high school. So thankful we reconnected years later when he started coming to the Silver Sneakers class I was teaching. Never changing, he was always supportive & encouraging. Dearly loved his sense of humor & so admired his desire to stay active. He will be deeply missed & remembered as “one of the good ones”.

“ Bob was also a counselor in the adult evening school and served as the Plant City Adult School marshal at graduation. I met Bob on my first night as the newly appointed Adult and Community School administrator and over the next ten years he became a friend and my go to guy. I learned a great deal about PCHS and community politics. My condolences to Judi, Joey, Stacy, and Meredith and all the family. Ralph Ruso

*Oh my goodness
Judi just realizing my Husband and yours died on the same day. They both were well loved and respected pillars in the community. I know you must be grieving terribly just as I am. Very hard to accept this newfound WIDOWHOOD. My condolences. Maybe we can get together for lunch in a few weeks. Crying a river now but having friends support helps.*

I am Adrienne Westfall. Bob was my cousin. Our mothers were close sisters and we spent a great amount of time together growing up. His family moved to Florida at the end of our eighth grade year. They visited Schenectady as often as they could. Bob and I kept in touch through early adult years, but life happened and we lost touch. I My Mom and I visited a couple of times in FL and the last visits were by myself. Kathy kept me up on him, especially his health. I was saddened to hear that he had passed. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
