“ Roger spent many hours serving his Lord as an usher at First Baptist Church Dover and at the Billy Graham crusade when it came to Tampa. I had the privilege of spending some time enjoying his friendship at church and visiting in his home. I once asked him if he read much and he said he liked to read his Bible. He was the kindest and gentlest of men, so easy to love. He loved Carole and wanted always to take care of "his girl". I have been blessed by his presence in my life, as have many others.
