“ Roger & Ron have been friends from thier teenage years. Ron's passing is particularly painful since Roger & he have celebrated birthdays together for alot of years. We have been in Ron's life in good times and bad and we all knew that we were there fore each other. Renee and Christy have been in our lives since they were born. Leisa we have known from a very young age. Ron and Barn have known our kids since they were born. Both kids have great memories of our times together. We were there when Barb and Ron got engaged and they finally found the love of their lives. We send you all our love and Ron will be greatly missed. Ron is like missing a part of ourselves. We love you. Cindy and Roger##imported-begin##Roger & Cindy Thompson##imported-end##

“ Our heartfelt sympathies go out to the Layton Family. We shared a couple of years together in the Condo's at Walden Lake and remember well some great times over cocktails and dinner. Although we saw each other more infrequently as the years passed whenever we bumped into each other Ron always treated us as long lost friends. We will miss him and are saddened by his passing. “ Barb, Leisa, Renee, Christy and family, I have been thinking about you all a lot this week. I was very sad to hear of Roni's passing. I found whenever I thought back on my memories of spending time with your family, the memory that kept surfacing was Roni's warm and smiling voice saying, "Hey Dan Dan" to my sister Danielle. Somehow, that small, simple memory of one of Roni's many humorous and affectionate gestures sums up my wonderful memories of growing up with the Layton's. I am glad I was able to have Ron as part of my life and I know that many, many people feel that way. Please know that you are all in our thoughts, memories and prayers. With love, Lee Thompson and family

“ Barbara, I was deeply saddened today when my daughter, Kim (& Mark), called me and told me the news of your great loss. I remember Ron for his great personality and so much fun to be around. Bob had great times with him. You have a wonderful family that I have admired for many years. May the good Lord give you the courage, strength and blessings at this time of need. I'm always here if you need me. Love, Bev

“ Barbara and girls - Please know that you and your family are in my prayers. Losing someone you love is never easy to our heart, but knowing where they are and being confident in that is all we need to lift our spirits. He is celebrating and waiting on more of his family to one day join him in heaven. Your family holds a special place in my heart and I am praying for your strength and peace through this time without Ron. Love you so much!##imported-begin##Karen Herold Romero##imported-end##
