“ Susan, Staci, and Kendall, I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Ronnie was so great to work with for 20+ years at All South, but he was so much more than a co-worker or a boss. He was a true friend, the kind that would give the shirt off his back. He came to know many in my family, including my wife, my mom, and my kids and they always thought highly of him. He was an amazing person. I hope you all can eventually find some comfort in the memories you created with him. I know he will be missed by all who knew him. Please let me know if you need anything at all.

Love,
Angie Reimer & Family
