We have been neighbors to Nancy and Ronnie for almost 31 years. Ronnie would help or give asked advice. He even had my husband come and cut some trees when he became unable. We were shocked to hear of his passing. We knew he had health problems, but you never think of losing them. Since 2014 I have had deaths each year. I guess I should count my blessings that I had my mom, my dad, my younger sister, my aunt, my big stepbrother (Doug Linamood), and his mom, my step-mom short of a month or so of 40 yrs with my dad - they had a good working relationship and I believe they achieved their dreams and still left us kids with a little bit (Dad needed a hearing aid....and all that $$$$ was left). I have also lost many friends (both from work and neighbors, cousins, etc.) Ronnie and Nancy touched our lives in the Southern fashion that we came to love about Dover and Plant City.....real country folk! Ronnie will be greatly missed, but we all shall meet again. In the meantime, while he enjoys his castle in Heaven....waiting on the rest of us....We are coming, God Willing! Thank you both for being such pleasant neighbors. What I remember the most about Ronnie was how he would have lil Jason (neighbor boy) burning brush with him, etc. Ronnie loved that kid and that loved him.

One more funny incident. We had several dogs (which I hear Ronnie just loved - not)....He calls one Sunday and this is what he says; "When your lab gets done reading my paper would have her bring it back (she was getting it out of the paper part of his mailbox....lolol) We had no idea whose it was....He also asked if we would keep her in until about 9am on the weekends as he liked to sleep in....I hung up and looked at Curt (reading Ronnie's paper) and told him..."You need to fold that up and take it to Ronnie.....that is where Brandy (our lab) was fetching the paper for us...3 houses down the road...lololol. Curt took him the paper and they had a good laugh cause Ronnie had been giving the paper guy a hard time....and you know...Those Sunday papers are the best - ALL THE SALE ADS! Thanks for the laughs!

Nancy...we are serious...if you need anything or need Curt to do some heavy work, trim trees, etc...He is more than happy to help. He could come and get what has fallen in the back and take it to his burn pile (yes, he and Ronnie loved to burn).
