Tribute Wall

“ My deepest sympathies to you all. I will always remember Roy as a very loving and devoted father. I grew up across the street from them and can vividly remember going out to their property in Ft. Lonesome. We all had the chance to be "kids" and have the run of the land!! Sorry to have lost contact but have thought of you all many times over the years!! Just know your Daddy is in the sweet arms of Jesus. I personally was blessed to have known him and what he stood for!! He will be missed!!
