“ My memory of her is many years ago, when I had the pleasure of visiting her and Cecil at their home. We visited and they shared their family memories with me, and as I was leaving Miss Ruby gathered together several canning jars of vegetables that they had grown and that she had canned. She insisted that I take them home, which I did, and they were the best tomatoes, and peas I've ever had. Such a sweet and gracious lady, and I pray her family is comforted through Christ.

“ Ms. Ruby was such a sweet and caring Christian lady. She will be missed greatly. I shared this with Diane a few years ago about how her mama always went out of her way to find me and tell me how much she loved me. She was one of two ladies at church that had heard about my mom's battle with Alzheimer's and how she had stopped telling me she loved me. I will forever treasure her hugs and kindness, along with memories of how such a small act meant more than she knew. I take comfort in knowing she is walking the streets of gold and in the presence of my Savior. Peace and comfort to each of you along with my love.
