“ From 10,500 miles and after an extensive search including the hiring of a private detective & the partitioning of a Judge, my husband, John Parsons (Larry Powell), found Rufus. The discovery filled a void and introduced John to an extended family for which he will be forever grateful ! Rufus's passion for the outdoors (fishing & gardening) lives on through John and although distance has been a major obstacle for the Parsons Family, there is no barrier for the love, thoughts and prayers we wish to pass onto to the Powell Family & friends. Memories of Rufus will live on in our hearts. RIP Rufus xx

“Rufus was a natural caregiver, he just took care of everyone. He was a quiet man, and loved to be outside in his garden, taking care of his worm beds and fishing. He didn't talk a lot, but if you stepped into his world and asked him about the things he loved, well, then you got to know Rufus; he made me laugh and he liked to play little jokes on me...once he gave me what I thought was sweet pickles chopped up, nope, it was jalapeño!! And he just giggled!! And after I drank some water so did I. I will miss his gentle ways and his sense of humor. Rest easy Rufus, your work on earth is done.
