As I am about to go say goodbye to Cousin Sabrina, my wishes are for the people she loved to find the strength to go on without her by their side. The memories and experiences we all shared with Sabrina, will live on in us. Sabrina was a special person with a big heart. I always admired her sense of humor and strength. As well as the special bond she shared with her siblings, nieces & nephews and all her family. She was a wonderful wife, sister, aunt, daughter, friend and more to many. We will miss you Sabrina.

“Blessed thanks to all of you who have left messages about Sabrina. I remember a psychology USF professor who once debated with me that an individual is not unique. Your messages have proven him incorrect. Sabrina possessed her own expression of love and caring to each of us. Karen.

“Sabrina: you will always be an angel placed on the earth by God for so many people. My life has been fortunate to have been touched and blessed by you. I worked with Sabrina @ AvMed for 2 years and developed a friendship which will carry me through the days ahead. Although it has only been for a short time, I feel as I have known Sabrina all my life. She always knew how to bring sunshine to a cloudy day. I know the passing of Ricki was hard for Sabrina and although it was sooner than we all wanted she has now seen Ricki @ Rainbow Bridge. Her love for animals was amazing and she always took a strong interest in Spencer's, my son, activities with his FFA chapter. I know Sabrina will be with me by my side watching Survivor and we will contemplate who is playing the better game and who will make it to the end.

My condolences and sympathies to Keith and Sabrina's family, may you all find peace and comfort in the many memories you have of Sabrina and know you will see her one day.

I love and miss you Sabrina and find comfort in knowing you are no longer in pain and at peace. God Bless you my friend and I know I will see you again.

“ I am so sad I can barely stand it. I pray for the strength to deal with this. Sabrina, you were my third parent, toughest critic, kindest and most generous and loving sister to me. You and Lynda always looked after me which was a full time job, still to this day....I couldnt have asked for better sisters. You were the best aunt BB to Lauren and Madelyne, and Logan was just starting to experience the wonderfulness of his aunt which unfortunately Little Brooke will never know. My heart hurts my head feels like its going to explode. We use to tease each other till almost tears and stay on the phone and gossip about our crazy family for hours . I'll think of you often, every Elvis song or movie, Johnny Depp, Princess Di, or when Survivor comes on TV.....I'll miss the dinners you would cook for me until I was stuffed and all the while tease me of my weight and then tell me it had deer meat in it....you know I hate eating deer. Sis, I would have traded places with you in a second. A part of me died 12-24-14 at 9:39 pm....probably the best part of me other than my children. My only comfort is knowing you suffer no more and till the end you reassured me of your love for me. Im so sorry I couldn't do anything for you. You stayed true to your tough inner core till the end I broke down every time I saw you and you'd comfort me then make fun of me and tell me its OK....I'm in a fog...lost little brother without his big sis.....I miss you and love you and thank you for being in my life I'll be eating venison and watching Survivor in your honor! i know youre watching over me, probably making fun of how I walk or dressed myselfbut thats ok! I love you Sis....see you in Heaven.

“ Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy. ~Author Unknown

Sabrina Wade was my friend. I met her on December 19, 1990 which was my first day at AvMed. She was kind; she was funny; she was knowledgeable. I had no idea at the time that we would become friends. I use the word friend for very few people. She was just a girl that was training me. But I did come to think of her as a friend. People would say we fussed like sisters. I say I am honored to be her friend. After 24 years of service with AvMed, there are many associates who loved her like I do. Her love for us and her clients was evident. She had a huge heart.

I never understand the reason why some people live long lives and others are taken in their prime. I take solace in knowing she has gone on to glory. On Christmas morning, I thought about her discussing Christmas decorating each year (usually before Thanksgiving). I remember her having the Publix holiday salt and pepper shakers. It's strange the things you remember.

I thank God for blessing me with her presence in my life. There is a void that no one else can fill. Now there is one less friend in my life. Khalil Gibran wrote “When you are sorrowful look again in your heart, and you shall see that in truth you are weeping for that which has been your delight.” Today I weep for our friendship.

Sabrina lived her life with family as her priority. She talked about her mom, Keith, Bernie, Lynda, Lauren and Madelyn so much that I felt like I knew each one of them. I pray God's peace, comfort and joy for Sabrina's family and friends. Sabrina loved you all so very much.

Sabrina, I know Ricki was there waiting to greet you! I will see you again one day.

“ When I heard about Sabrina being diagnosed with pancreatic cancer I really didn't know what that meant so I asked some co-workers and they told me what it meant. They asked me who do I know that has cancer, I said my ex-sister in law, but that didn't feel right so I said my sister in law because Sabina has always made me feel like family. I could go on and on with my thoughts over the last couple of months, I wont just know that Sabrina is one of Gods angels she has already been an angel to so many of us.

Purple was Sabrina's favorite color. Purple also represents those who have had to fight the pancreatic cancer battle.

“ When I think about Sabrina, I note her Latina DNA because she was like her Grandmother Jessie. First is hair: Both of them had black hair, of which neither would allow one strand of grey to appear. Sabrina was born with her black hair. Both could exhibit that fiery Latin response--once Jessie was followed by a man in an auto while she was walking. She picked up a rock and threw it through his windshield. Sabrina could respond with "colorful" language. Both were loving to me. Sabrina telephoned me every day, for years, while on her way home from AvMed. Jessie was the most supportive mother-in-law.-- Additionally, she loved her siblings and nieces and nephew unconditionally.-- 2012, Sabrina, Lynda, Logan, & I traveled to Best Friends Sanctuary, where we all felt the love of Nature. Sabrina and Lynda volunteered working with the rescued pigs.-- 2013, Sabrina, Lauren, and I traveled to Moose Head Lake, Maine. Sabrina told me, while hospitalized, that the trip was the best ever. I'm so glad I was able to give her that gift, before her diagnosis. -- Tears are falling as I write this; but, also, I am so happy to have been her mother for 52 years and to know, as Lynda, has shared, Sabrina is at Heaven. Love to all of you friends and family who have been supportive during her painful experience with cancer.

“ I don't normally scan the obits, but today I felt I should. I was surprised to see Lynn's obit. She and I worked together at St. Augustine Health Care before it was bought out by AvMed. Lynn was a lovely person, so very kind and respectful. She was a joy to be around. Before I left the company, Lynn had purchased two Princess Diana dolls in error. I was delighted she offered to sell me the second doll. Although we lost touch with each other, I have remembered her fondly and will continue to do so. May God bless her dear husband and family.

“ Sabrina, This has been such a bad dream but its not a dream. I can't believe you are gone but I know you are in a better place and I am thankful that you are not suffering any more. I feel so bad because you fought so hard to take care of our Dad when he was ill and we lost Dad in February and then you were diagnosed in April. You never got a chance to enjoy life again because we were so busy with Dad and then you got ill. You have been a Great sister to Bernie and me. A Great Aunt to our nieces and nephew. You are the most giving person that I know. You would roll down the window and I would think what are you doing and you would give money to the homeless on the street. The whole time I would be thinking we are going to get robbed. You did this a couple times with me. You were always taking care of our nieces and nephews. You gave them anything they wanted. Bernie said I'm going to have to start handing him $20 bills because you just gave him money just because. I don't know what I'm going to do without you. It saddens me because we always talked about growing old together and being there for each other. We talked about opening our own consignment shop in our retiring age. It saddens me that this will never happen. I know you will be watching me from heaven and some day I will be with you again. I love you dearly and you mean the world to me. I know you are running in Heaven now with our Dad, Grandma Jessie and your beloved Ricki.

Dearest sweet and funny Sabrina – I do not have words to express what a beautiful kind spirit you were to all that knew you. You incredible love of family was ever present. You were a fearless protector of your brothers and sisters and demonstrated such wisdom, courage and dignity. I will always remember our walks in the park and around your sisters and brother’s house with Lynda and Aunt Rhonda. In our last conversation, you told me I was a good niece – it was you who will persevere in my heart as the strong and fearless mother of all around you. Your strength and spirit lives on in me and in all of those who were touched by you.

Another angel in Heaven, with a bright smile, working together at AvMed, even though we were not in the same division, there was always conversation in the hall at our desks or in the break room. Sabrina always had a smile and something nice to say. AvMed was blessed to have a valued person like Sabrina. After leaving Avmed, many of us kept in touch, stop by to say hello, many of us developed some true friendships.
