“ I would like to honor such a great woman that I have had pleasure to know for the past 29 years. From visiting me in NJ and weathered the snow as we stood at the barricades with Al Rooker in New York on the Today Show all the way to Sunny Florida parking cars in her yard for the Strawberry Festival. I feel privileged to have known a woman with such a large heart and shared her love and compassion with me and her entire family. I will always remember Sadie Mae Hill.

“ I have been blessed beyond measure to have Sadie Mae Hill for my Mema. I am so thankful that God saw fit that all three of my children were able to experience being loved by this wonderful, loving, giving, funny, smart woman. The love she has shown her family, all of us, will last forever. I have peace in knowing that she is in Heaven walking hand in hand with Granddaddy, in no more pain.
