“ On behalf of Ron's side of the family, I wanted to express our sincerest and loving condolences to Saaly's family and friends. Sally will be greatly missed by everyone she came in contact with. She was a wonderful, beautiful, kind soul.

I think the true measure of someone's life is felt by the fond memories and positive impact a person has on others. To see how much a better person my Dad has become in the years he was with Sally-which in large part due to Sally's patience, love, kindness, friendship-is a testament to her quiet power and profound influence.

Knowing Sally has improved all of our lives. May the thoughts of her love and goodness help ease the pain of her not being with us in person.

“ My favorite memory of Sally was when she, this tiny little lady, would take out that big golf driver and calmly hit it straight down the fairway. She was always the first to visit the sick, send greeting cards and offer to help no matter what the task. She will be missed greatly.

“ Sally was a wonderful and caring sister-in-law. She will be greatly missed by family and friends alike. She brought two wonderful children into this world - Gary and Kellie (my niece and nephew) who have always been there for her.

Even though we have lived a great distance from her and the family, there were times when we would meet in Illinois at a special farmhouse where my parents lived and we still enjoy those memories together.. Kellie has kept us together through many photos from the past .

Sometimes that seems like just yesterday because of the fond memories!

We know as Christians that a loving Heavenly Father and his only begotten Son Jesus Christ provided a way for us to be together again forever thru the Atonement.

Sally has passed into this stage of her life and still lives on and is enjoying a great reunion at this time with parents and other relatives who are welcoming her with open arms.

What a wonderful plan - to be here on this earth for a seemingly short and temporary time compared to Eternity.

There is so much to look forward to. May you rest in peace Sally. We love you.
