“ Sam was more than my 1st cousin. He was one of my best friends. Carol, Sam , Hank & I & our families have been on many great trips, eaten at each of our homes & had good times together. He always wanted you to feel welcome. When you walked into their home , he would want to get you something to eat or drink. Many times through the years, I've heard him say to Carol, No, I'm not going to do that or eat something she didn't want & I would say to Sam, You know you are & he would say, I know it & we would all laugh & he would do whatever it was. He worked hard & was generous with everything & everyone. We love each other's families & I pray for them peace & to dwell on the good times & good memories. Sam's pain is gone & he is with our Jesus. 🙏🙏🙏
