“ Sandy could tell the best stories and always laugh at mine. She shared her love and her heart freely to all who knew her. Family was always first and she always made us feel like family. She will be sorely missed. Mac....you and she were lucky to have shared your love with each other. Sandy I love you more!

“ Tomorrow a dear, sweet lady will be laid to rest. There are a lot of adjectives I could use to describe Sandy but they all seem to fall short of what she really was. But let me try a few: she was kind, generous, caring, loving and oh so sweet. She made my son's life and as a mother that means so much. I have never heard anyone say a bad word about Sandy and there is a reason for that, there was nothing bad to say. We will all miss her smile and her presence. We may not be smiling right but the angles are. Maybe she will play an April fools joke on them. I love you girl. Rest in peace. Fred and Hazel

Mac Womack tried to teach me what he called OJT. I saw him go through times when I began working for CFD. When he met Sandy I noticed a spring in Mac's step. I never saw him s happy as when he and Sandy were together. Prayers for Malcolm Womack & for Sandy's many friends and family.

“ Oh Sandy - I will always remember the fun times we shared! You were a very good friend and it is so sad that people lose touch due to family things - we shared so many "girlfriend secrets" and i will always remember the photo shoot we did.... I think about you often and Now i have to wait until we meet again in the afterlife - i cant wait to be with you then, girl! I love you, Lani

“ Sandy I miss you more than words could ever say!! My best friend & my soul mate. We knew what each other was thinking & could finish each other's sentences. I always called you after Hunters ball games, after work and just because. There's a huge whole in my heart and in my life! Thanks for being the best Sister in the world!! Love You More!!

“ My beautiful aunt, the glue to my family, my role model, my hero. She is not just another person. The world she left behind truly is a little darker now. I will live my life to be as much like her as possible. I know she's still here with us. She let me know that this morning. Thank you for that Sandy. I love you so much.

“ What a Godly, precious, sweet lady; a true friend! It has been my privilege to serve as her Pastor for the past few years - through several surgeries and quite a few years of physical sickness. Sandy's faith has sustained her and been a tremendous testimony to all who knew her. She impacted so many lives because of her love, her smile, and her constant joy!

One of the last songs we enjoyed together was GOD WANTS TO HEAR YOU SING - and I know she is singing now in the presence of her Savior!

A phrase that became a motto in these past few months has been STAND STILL AND LET GOD MOVE. She did and He did!

As Mac said to me on Thursday evening, Sandy is now at rest! She exhibited true faith and experienced God's grace, strength, and joy to the very end!

*We sorrow at her passing but we sorrow not as those who have not hope - she has been PROMOTED and WE WILL SEE HER AGAIN!
1 Thessalonians 4:13-18!*

“ So many memories I cherish, like when we went wedding dress shopping... The 70's party..New Years, when I came and spent time with you at the dealership, the parties in Powhatan, etc., But most of all I remember how proud and blessed I was that you stood with me and Mac stood with Jim when Jim and I got married ... Between then and now we've missed a lot of years but I will always remember the times we shared, I Love you Sandy.. always have, always will.. May you rest in the peace and care that only God can give and may Mac live in the comfort that you will always be with him... I Love you lady! Gone WAY too soon.... You will be remembered and missed lovely lady! Until with meet again!! with love I send this message.... Lisa Price
