

Mrs. Sandy Putnal

January 14, 1942 - May 27, 2019

Sandy Putnal, 77, of Plant City, Florida, born on January 14, 1942 in Chicago, Illinois, entered into eternal rest on May 27, 2019. She retired from Hillsborough County Road Department, attended Shiloh Baptist Church, and was an artist. A longtime member of the Plant City Art Guild, she displayed her artwork at many venues, including the Strawberry Festival and the Tampa Courthouse. She was a real girly girl and enjoyed shopping, purses, and clothes. She was preceded in death by her husband, James Putnal; and her beloved westie, Buttons. She is survived by her children, Joe Revels (Bobbi), James Owens (Glenda), and Renee McCorkle (Gordon Greene); 4 grandchildren, Charles McCorkle,III, Jessica Revels Pereault, Brandi Avila, and Emily Vicker; 3 great-grandchildren, Vivian Revels, Zachary McCorkle, and Ronald Hinton West,II; and many extended family and friends. Expressions of condolence at HopewellFuneral.com

Tribute Wall

MW

“ I had only known you for a few years and I must say that your smile was infectious. I loved to call you and hear you say "how do you do". I will always remember you with respect and fondness.

To your family, I did not know of her passing until a few moments ago. After several attempts to reach her by phone failed, I knew something was wrong. Please accept my sincere condolences on your loss.

Mary Jane Wagoner

Mary Jane Wagoner - June 27, 2019 at 08:08 PM

TM

“ 2 files added to the album Sandy

Tina McCraney - May 30, 2019 at 06:28 PM

Josephine
Andrews

“ We shared a 40 year friendship and many times and memories
I will miss you
Till we see one another again
Rest in peace my dear friend

Josephine Andrews - May 30, 2019 at 11:42 AM

SM

“ In my heart she will always be the hard working, joyful, loving young mother she was in the 1970s when we lived beside you on Prosser Courtyou are all in our thoughts and prayers...Suzy McCray

Suzy McCray - May 30, 2019 at 10:44 AM