“ Sandy, it has been a year today and it also fell on Mother's day. Mom handled it all pretty well, and we ate at Ron and Cathy's for lunch. We talked about you, and dad as well. We miss you and pops, but know we will see each other again one day. We also took care of yours and Wade's headstone and also got Dad's and Mom's headstone done too. Just know we miss you and dad and Wade. We also took care of Tazzy as you would have liked. Chat with you soon! Love you guys.

“ Sandy, I has almost been a year already that you have been gone. We miss you very much and it is hard to do some things because it reminds me of us doing all kinds of stuff together. I am sure you want us to go on and enjoy ourselves but it is hard. As you know, mom celebrated her 75th birthday yesterday and everyone was there. It was fun, but we missed the 2 crazy ones. You and Pop made a visit to mom in the night of her birthday she said. I know you both are with us, and keeping a close eye on us.

We love you and miss you as well as loving dad too. We hope to spend eternity together one day.

“ Sandy, we miss you and Dad, and think of all of you a lot. We miss doing crazy stuff with you and Mom thinks of you all the time as well. It will be a year in May, and it does not get easier. Thanks for keeping an eye on mom, and tell pops to keep visiting her at night. We look forward to seeing you guys when we pass on, and we will have a massive party when we get there. Love you Sparky!

“ We celebrated your birthday yesterday as you know with all of our family. Bobby and Melody was there too. I didn't get a chance to write anything on here though.

We all had a great time celebrating your life at Red Lobster. Thanks for being a part of our lives. We miss you and love you very much Sandy. Pops is keeping you company as well as Wade and everybody else I am sure. Save a spot for us!

Happy Birthday!

*Love,
Kevin*

“ Merry Christmas Sandy, I miss you and pops so much. I look forward to the day that we are all together again in Heaven. Mom did very good today, and she is going with us tomorrow too. We will take care of her and make sure she is having as good of a time as possible. Love you and pops. Tell everyone hi for me. we also went to see Uncle Ray's side of the family tonight, it was nice.

“ Sparky, I missed having you and pops around during Thanksgiving and I also miss having you both here all of the time. You both would be so proud of how good mom is doing. She is a real trooper. I know both of you have helped her get to where she is and will be there for her all of the way. Love you and dad so much it hurts.

“ Hey Sparky, we had a great get together with the Rogers family, and I missed you being there to share some of your stories. We had fun, but missed you and pops. Mom saw the pictures of you and dad and it was hard on her, but she remembers the good times that were occurring when the pictures were taken.

We miss you and pops and all the Rogers family (Granny, Grandpa, Uncle Jimmy and also Wade). We will see all of you guys again one day. Watch over us and help us live life right.

“ Sandy, I will miss you. I have enjoyed all of the fun times we had as kids and also in the last few years. I know you will have no pain or troubles to worry about anymore. Hopefully you and dad are having lots of fun with all of our relatives that preceded you both. Tell them hi for us, and one day we will all be together again. Your passing has left a void that cannot be filled by anyone, but I will try and remember the good times and not dwell on the sad passing of you and pops. Your memorial service was awesome, there was plenty of people there and it was great to hear from everyone how much they enjoyed your smile and positive outlook. You were (Are) loved!

“ Sandy has been of my Best Girlfriends since we met the first day of 7th grade. We worked at kmart after high school together for 5 years. And we have kept in contact with each other through all these years of happy times and great sorrow. It sadden me to hear of her passing knowing I will never be able to pick up the phone and call her. I loved her like a sister and spent alot of my teenage years at the Rogers house. It broke my heart when I talked to her a couple of weeks ago and she told me her dad had passed and that her mom was sick and in the hospital. Sandy helped comfort me when I lost both my parents. She was always there to listen and give of herself. Sandy I will never forget you and all the laughter we shared and the tears. I will carry you in my heart forever. Mrs Betty, Kevin and Ron, I am praying that the Lord gives you strength through your sorrow and know if you ever need anything like I told you at the memorial. Please do not hesitate to call me.

“ Sandy was one of the sweetest, dearest people I have ever met. I know this is one reason that drew Dad to her. Every moment I shared with her was wonderful and I am terribly saddened that I will not have any other opportunities to spend time with her. I am proud to have called her my step-mother. The Rogers family has always been supportive since the death of my father and are very special to me. My heart breaks as I'm writing this. I pray for peace and understanding for the family and hope that the focus will be directed to the wonderful memories you all have shared with her (and I know they are MANY as you guys were ALWAYS together!) Much love to you all and I am here if you need anything from me.

“ Sandy will be truly missed by her Steps of Faith small group. She was always faithful, always contributed to the group discussions, and always made the rest of us feel loved and cared for. I will truly miss you, my friend.

I was so sorry to hear that you had left us and gone on to happier grounds. I am taken back to the days when you worked directly under my supervision. You left and went to another team and I was glad for you because I could still interact and see you daily. I will miss seeing you and pray that your family will be okay. “ Dear Sandy,
If I had only known 2 months ago when I saw you at your Dad's funeral that that would be the last time, I would've hugged you a little tighter and a little longer. As far back as I can remember as a little girl, my days for many years involved you, Ronnie (or Ron as he's known now) and Kevin. We took many steps in that old Trapnell neighborhood, gettin' in to whatever we could. No matter how many years passed before we saw each other, you were still the same old Sandy. Always smiling! I'm sure there is rejoicing in Heaven upon the arrival of such an awesome angel. I'm sure you're dad is up to some kind of mischief, as he always was here on earth. Try to keep him out of trouble, and wait on the rest of us, as I believe we will meet again.

“ Sandy loved with her whole heart. She loved her family and was actively involved in their lives. She enjoyed spending time with them at church, on vacation, or simply going to a restaurant and hanging out together. Her great sense of humor made those she was around laugh. Those who were apart of her life will miss her greatly, but we all know she is in heaven, where she has been made whole. May God grant all of her family and friends peace, hope, and love to make it through each day!
