What a sweet sweet lady whom I had the privilege to go to church with and work in Sunday School and nursery with at Hopewell. She loved the Lord and wanted everyone to know Him. God bless her as she went home to be with the Lord our Savior. Precious memories of a dear sweet lady.

“ Sarah was a beloved member of our Sew & Sow quilting group. We had many laughs and good times together. A dear and loving friend of us all. We missed her every Tuesday she couldn't be with us. Rest in peace dear friend.

“ Great Aunt Sarah was a treasure. She always baked a cake for Aunt Wilma and Molly when she visited. I only saw her several times in those last years of her life. She was family and my granny's sister in law and that was all that mattered. She had a rich life because she had the Lord and her family. May angels continue to go before her and may she be be richly rewarded for her life.
