“ My condolences on the loss of your father John. He was always a pleasure to chat with the times we met at the doctor's dining area at the old SFBH. I enjoyed seeing the two of you interact. He's in a better place now being welcomed home by Jesus and I know you will all miss him dearly but just know our time is always short on this earth and we who are believers will be welcomed home in the Lord's perfect timing.
God bless you. Paul

“ Sergio left behind a lot of friends. We went out with the ROMEO club, sat daily in his backyard watching the endless stream of birdhouses and windmills he made. He became one of my best friends, liked a good joke and loved the ladies. He especially loved his Italian cuisine with wine, cheese and chicken Marsala. He had a tremendous knowledge and could solve many problems. He was good for his family and had a big heart. He never gave up, even when he became blind. He didn't lose interest and he was often listening and learning on his ipad. For him, it was always 5 oclock, meaning he always made me feel so welcome. I felt like a family member. We will dearly miss him.
