“ Heart sick over the loss of my buddy Shane. I have so many great memories of our times at bluegrass festivals, picking music all night and talking about fishing. I will miss his voicemails on my phone when he would just call to check in and talk so "fast" I could hardly understand him, but that was Shane! Never slowed down. Always doing something good. “ FRED and i are so sad to know that Shane is gone from our lives .we loved him like he was our own .He lived 2 houses down from us for seven years,we will always love and miss him.i have cried for days . He was such a joy to be around,he was a BLUE GRASS MAN,and he would play classical music for me,it was beautiful music.He was very smart ,very funny,he went on trips for work all over the world,when he would return he would come down and tell us about the great times he had.He was a very caring and loving man.There is a big void in our life now that he is gone,you always feel you have more time,but you do not. we are so sorry for the family for this great loss for them and everyone that knew SHANE,he touched so many hearts .REST IN PEACE,SWEET SHANE. “ Shane was truly a person that if you spent any amount of time with you will never forget. His quick wit and positive personality was unique and something I truly enjoyed. Mutual friends and music brought us together 20 years ago and since then we made countless memories and some great music together. Thankfully much of it in my house and with my family that also loved him and looked forward to his visits...often extended. I realize now after talking and crying my eyeballs out with complete strangers that were his friends he had that kind of impact on many, many people. Love you Shane and see you on the other side

“ When you write tributes for the recently deceased there is always a tendency to want to overstate their personalities. Not with Shane! He was a joy to be around. He used to come up to our family Thanksgiving parties at O’Leno State Park with my stepdaughter Alex and jam out. We all loved his company. He was never a braggart or infused with false humility. He was just full of good and boy did he love his music. I have great memories of him doing our straight ahead Jazz show at WMNF radio in Tampa with me about 10 years ago featuring jazz grass new acoustic music. He was effusive, funny, and knew his stuff about music. I will miss him. We will all miss him. My condolences to his family and friends. If life is truly about making people feel loved and appreciated then Shane’s life was a grand slam. Jimmy Lyons Dade City FL

“ I hired Shane into Topcon back in early 2015. I remember flying to West Palm Beach and interviewing him at the hotel I was staying at. I remember thinking that this guy wasn't really a trained engineer, but he struck me as the kind of guy who would work hard, learn fast, and adapt. I was right. Shane made an impact at Topcon almost immediately. His personality was a pleasure to be around, and everyone who had the pleasure to work or train next to him really enjoyed him. He has friends in Topcon to this day, and they are spread out all over the world. Shane worked for me for about 2 years before a reorganization put him in a different department. We tried our best to stay in touch, and he always referred to me as his “real boss”. Shane had a similar impact on my family as well, he had an opportunity to meet them a couple of times over the years that he worked with us. When he was part of a reduction in the engineering department, I was truly saddened, but he still kept his spirits up. I got one of the nicest voicemails I can remember from Shane the day that his job was eliminated due to budget cuts. Shane taught me as many things as I taught him in the years we knew each other, and he'll be missed for many years by many people. My family and I are praying for Shane and his family and friends during this tragic time.

“ I'm deeply saddened to learn of Shane's passing. I've known him since kindergarten. He was one of my best friends growing up and still to this day over 35 years later. I spent half of my childhood at his house and his family treated me like one of their own. I have so many memories of him that make me laugh. So many good times with he and his dad, who he always called "GT". I'll miss my friend. Condolences to the Turner family.
