“ *Dear family,
I had hoped Sherlene would be healed in a natural way; but God chose differently. I am thankful that she is no longer suffering. Although I know your hearts are broken, my prayer now is that He will bless and comfort each of you until you can arrive at the day when you can actually remember her with a smile as you cherish the knowledge that she loved you all so much. She was a sweet soul, and she will be missed forever. Thank God for the knowledge that there will be a "glad reunion day". Love and prayers. Deborah (Young) Johnson, Cousin*

“ I never expected to be writing on a page like this so soon. Sherlene and I spent many a second weekend together and enjoyed every minute of it! Sweet, sweet memories! Thank God for the memories! We both grew up, married, and had three sons apiece. I know she suffered a lot these last years, more than any of us really know, I'm sure. But she did it with a smile. I am so terribly sad to know that she is gone. I'm trying my best to be happy for her, though, knowing she has entered into a most blissful rest in a place more wonderful and beautiful than we can even think or imagine. A place where we will meet again one day. And by God's grace, that's what I plan to do. Rest in peace, sweet girl. You are perfectly healed, walking in God's sunshine. I love you!

“ She was a quiet girl, even quieter as a woman. She was always smiling. Her spirit was like silk yet few would know of her. Those that did, knew she was special. She would fall in love with an even quieter boy who could always be found by her side. They would raise three larger than life boys, Tyler, Jake and Cody. They would be the loudest and proudest things in her life. She had a respectful and giving heart even if it failed her in the end. The proverbial Giving Tree she was. This past Sunday morning on a beautiful February day, God said enough. Patricia Sherlene Keene Elliott eased into eternity as quietly as she lived. As her Uncle, she always treated me with respect and yes, even a little honor. I would build their first home and assist in building two others. We were on the third and last when her heart gave out. Ronnie and Sherlene came off your lips with a fluid grace because they were always together. To the end. They were married at my house 38 years ago and finished on the same road they started. Through all the unsure ups and downs of this new world of ours, this is the only reason I maintain a Facebook account, so that a select few can understand the goodness of a quiet woman, mother and niece like Sherlene. If she isn't asleep in God's hands this morning then there is no hope for the world and the rest of us. We'll see your dream finished and look after Ronnie and try to keep those wonderful boys of yours on the right path. Rest easy. LaRoyce Keene - Uncle Bug

I would like to offer my condolences to Sherlene's family. I grew up being around her at church and different events, but have not seen her in many years. I have prayed for her healing many times when I would receive a prayer chain for her. I know she is healed, but left many hearts that loved her broken. I pray God will wrap his arms around each of you and bring comfort and peace now and in days to come. Rest In Peace Sherlene!
